RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On January 6, 2021, Jennifer Nicole Brown filed a petition² for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*³ (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) resulting from the influenza (flu) vaccination she received on November 27, 2019. Amended Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that the vaccination was administered within the United States, her SIRVA symptoms persisted for more than six months, and neither she, nor any other party, has ever filed any action or received compensation in the form of an award or settlement for her vaccine-related injury. Petition at 1, 3. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On July 20, 2023, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Respondent concluded that Petitioner's claim meets the Vaccine Injury Table (Table) criteria for SIRVA. Id. at 5. Specifically, Respondent determined that "[P]etitioner had no history of pain, inflammation or dysfunction of the affected shoulder prior to intramuscular vaccine administration; she more likely than not suffered the onset of pain within forty-eight hours of vaccine administration; her pain and reduced range of motion were limited to the shoulder in which the intramuscular vaccine was administered; and there is no other condition or abnormality present that would explain [P]etitioner's symptoms." Id. Respondent further agrees that "the case was timely filed, that the vaccine was received in the United States, and that [P]etitioner satisfies the statutory severity requirement by suffering the residual effects or complications of her injury for more than six months after vaccine administration." Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
